DETAILED ACTION

Reason for allowance

1. Claims 1-31 are allowed over the prior art.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Prior art fails to teach the combination features the nut for the coaxial cable connector having a driving head and an annular portion; wherein at least two of the flat sides are grooved with at least one longitudinal groove, each of the grooves having a respective maximum width, and a respective maximum depth, wherein each grooved flat side has a respective total groove width (sum of the widths), wherein the respective maximum depth of each of the grooves is not greater than the radial offset between the outer side surfaces of the driving head portion and the annular portion with the rest of the claims limitations.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
